Would He devote that sacred head For such a worm as I?

When Christ, the mighty Maker died, For man the creature's sin.

Dissolve my heart in thankfulness, And melt my eyes to tears.

At the cross, at the cross where I first saw the light,
D7 G

But drops of grief can ne'er repay The debt of love I owe:

Here, Lord, I give my self away 'Tis all that I can do.
